Savoring These Moments,

“Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet God feeds them... Can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these.”

-Matthew 6:26-29

Dear Church,

As I write to you in late August, I hope that we are all savoring the beauty of these last days of summer, the simple beauty of each moment, and the many ordinary blessings that each day brings to us. The world turns and the seasons change and soon we will move into the busy-ness of the Fall. Soon we will gather together on-line for our annual “Welcome Back Sunday,” that will kick off a new church calendar year. So much remains routine, yet so much will be different. Many kids will return to school but stay home at the same time. Some are starting high school and college but in ways they did not expect. People continue to manage work, social, and family life under circumstances we could not have imagined. As a church, we continue to adapt how we serve one another and the community. It is easy and natural in these times for our minds to be filled with all different kinds of questions about the future as we live into new ways of being in community together and navigate the challenges of these times. Our faith reminds us to not forget to enjoy life fully in the present moment especially in times that might invite worry. Even as we deal with various forms of uncertainty, I hope we also remember to allow the present moment to be our home.

Jesus reminds us that borrowing trouble won't add time onto our life span. In our pursuit of heavenly realms, he invites us to think of ourselves as being like the birds of the air and flowers in the field. He teaches us that we can touch the realm of heaven when we allow ourselves to live fully in the present moment and open our eyes to the simple blessings that are always available to us there. He reminds us we don't have enough time to not appreciate the simple blessings of each day and each other. We don't have enough time to miss going on walks with our grandparents or our kids or to take for granted the many mundane miracles of every day. We don't have time to not notice the beauty of the birds of the air or the lilies of the field or to worry too much about future events or outcomes of which we are not sure. We only have time to arrive fully for the preciousness of life, for each other, and for God right now. Life is only available to us right here in the present moment. Our religious study group is currently engaging a comparative religious study. We are reading, “Living Buddha, Living Christ,” by Thich Nhat Hanh. In the book, Thich Nhat Hanh writes,

“The kingdom of God is available to you in the here and the now. But the question is whether you are available to the kingdom. Our practice is to make ourselves ready for the kingdom so that it can manifest in the here and the now.”

We are so blessed to have spiritual community to help us remind each other to make ourselves “ready for the kingdom,” so it can manifest in the here and now. Let’s remember to live fully in each moment and relish these beautiful summer days. I am so grateful to see all the ways we continue to show up for each other and for the blessings of our shared life together as the church.

In Christ, Pastor Brendan

Would you like to participate in worship?

We continue to miss our congregation’s presence and participation in worship, and your involvement would be so appreciated at this time! You are encouraged to record videos of yourselves delivering children's messages, giving the invitation to offering, reading the scripture passage, or providing special music (singing or instrumental). If you're called to enrich our worship services in this way, please contact Elena, Kristy or Pastor Brendan for more information and to coordinate for the coming Sunday.

Option for participation in worship—

During Phase 1 we continue to offer the opportunity for people to come in to church during the week (Mondays and Tuesdays only) for Kristy to record scripture readings, music etc. If this option appeals to you, please let us know so we can coordinate timing. Otherwise, just send your recording(s) to Kristy by Wednesday mornings at 10AM, so she can edit these into our worship service (kristy@fgucc.org). Thank you!

Online Worship Service Information—

Our church provides the link to our on-line worship service every week on our official church website, our official church Facebook page, as well as in a weekly e-mail with the worship bulletin. You should be able to watch this on-line service on your phone, your computer, or also your TV if you have a TV capable of accessing the internet. If you would like to watch the service on your TV but don't know how that works, please let Elena know and we will connect you with someone who can help you!

It's time for Gathering Sunday!

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth." -Psalm 100

We have much to celebrate as we rally together again (even while staying home) to kick off the beginning of another church calendar year! Sadly, we still cannot be together in person and hear each other singing, but we can still make a "joyful noise" of praise with each other! Sometime before Friday, September 11 you will be receiving a "noise-maker" as a gift for you to honk during our Gathering Sunday worship on September 13th. We will collectively make a joyful noise" to celebrate our life together with each other and with God! Honk if you Love God! Honk if you Love our Community! Honk if you love your neighbors! Let's kick off the year with a joyful noise!

Pastor Brendan Curran

Prayer Group/Prayer Flag Project

Come make prayer flags with Pastor Brendan on Wednesday September 16 from 6:30-8:30 PM. Prayer flag making supplies and instructions will be provided by our world renowned crafters and seamstresses. You only need to bring your warm hearts, hopes, and prayers. All are welcome! Please remember to reserve your spot with Elena in advance.

And Now For Something Completely Different! A Virtual Auction!

“I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.” –Isaiah 43:19

Dear Church,

God is always doing something new, and this year, we are doing something new for our auction! Every year, our annual auction provides joy, fellowship, and connection. It also raises the funds we need to thrive as a church and support other groups and organizations in our community doing good work. It's with joyful excitement to see how God will continue to help us flourish in new and unexpected ways in these changing times that we announce our, "virtual auction." That's right! Our 2020 auction will indeed happen on-line, and the dates will be November 20, 21 and 22! This is going to be completely new and different but we know that when we try new things, the God who is always doing something new is moving with us!

Our Auction planning team needs your help. Please respond to these four questions!

- 1.) What talents do you have to help with the creation of the auction (especially all you techy people! You know who you are!)
- 2.) What kinds of items would you like to see auctioned off this year? For example, are you interested in trips to exotic lands if the trips have a 2-year expiration date?
- 3.) What bigger items do you have that you would like to donate to the auction?
- 4.) What suggestions do you have for a fund-an-item?

Please send your responses to these questions to Bonnie (chiroqueen704@msn.com) or Elena (elena@fgucc.org). We look forward to receiving input from the congregation and the community as we plan this virtual auction with joyful anticipation and hopeful expectation!

Peace and blessings,

Pastor Brendan and the Auction Committee - Bonnie, Deva and Sheila

How we became the Forest Grove United Church of Christ (FGUCC) - 1957.

The full story of how our congregational church became the Forest Grove United Church of Christ could be a long-term, project. The national website suggested I read Barbara Brown Zikmund's Hidden Histories in the United Church of Christ. Helen Lewis loaned me both volumes! Here is an abridged version:

Immigrants from Germany and Switzerland established many Evangelical & Reformed (E & R) churches in America. The Reformed tradition centered in Pennsylvania with a broadly Calvinist theology; the Evangelical formed in Missouri with a broadly Reformed and Lutheran theology. Both the Reformed and the Evangelical put a lot of effort in establishing health and welfare institutions, such as hospitals, orphanages, nursing homes.. Both did services in German for many generations. By 1934 they were so Americanized, that they adopted a statement of unity.

In 1957 the E & R joined with the Council of Congregational Churches to form the UCC; and in 1961, when the UCC constitution was ratified, about 40% had E & R backgrounds, 60% congregational. Our national website puts it this way:

On Tuesday, June 25, 1957, at Cleveland, Ohio, the Evangelical and Reformed Church, 23 years old, passionate in its impulse to unity, committed to "liberty of conscience inherent in the Gospel," and the Congregational Christian Churches, 26 years old, a fellowship of biblical people under a mutual covenant for responsible freedom in Christ, joined together as the United Church of Christ. The new church embodied the essence of both parents, a complement of freedom with order, of the English and European Reformations with the American Awakenings, of separatism with 20th-century ecumenism, of Presbyterian with congregational polities, of neo-orthodox with liberal theologies. Two million members joined hands.

What did we gain by this union? Boards for Homeland Ministries, World Ministries, Pension Boards and the United Church Foundation. We gained organization filtering through General Synod, the Office of Communication, Office for Church in Society, and Office for Church Life and Leadership. These provide resources and a voice through councils on: racial justice, development, women in church and society, history, ecumenism and higher education.

Lettering on the outside of our chapel is a reminder of our past.

Lettering on the outside of our sanctuary tells who we are today.

The sign on Main Street, to be dedicated September 20, will speak to our future as we draw the circle of God's love wide, wider still.
